

SAVE THE DATE

ICC PRAGUE ARBITRATION DAY 2018

OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES FOR ARBITRATION IN THE CEE REGION

26 FEBRUARY 2018 | PRAGUE | CZECH REPUBLIC

ICC Prague Arbitration Day 2018 is a unique one-day conference focusing on international commercial arbitration trends within the CEE region. This inaugural event is brought to you by the ICC Czech Republic with the support of the ICC International Court of Arbitration (guest speaker: Ms Ziva Filipic, Managing Counsel of the Court's Secretariat).

TOPICS WILL INCLUDE:

- > Speed and Efficiency of Arbitration
- > Third Party Funding (TPF) - its Use and Need in International Commercial Arbitration in the CEE Region
- > Enforcement of Interim Measures imposed by Tribunals in the CEE Region, world-wide comparison
- > Importance of Choosing the Right Place of Arbitration

TARGET GROUP:

Participants mostly from the CEE region (Czech Republic, Poland, Slovakia, Hungary): in-house counsels, lawyers (legal counsels), arbitrators, representatives of national and international chambers (banking, insurance, etc.)

REGISTER HERE

ORGANIZATION INFORMATION:

- > ICC PAD 2018 will commence at 9:30 am and conclude with a cocktail reception from 6 pm
- > Language: English (no interpretation will be provided by organizers)

CONFERENCE FEE:

EUR 290 incl. VAT per person / early bird (by 31 January 2018) EUR 240 incl. VAT (includes conference fee, two coffee breaks, lunch, cocktail reception)
Preferred hotel room rates available
No refund after 31 January 2018 – until this date, 50 % of the fee

Standard discounts applicable for members of the ICC Czech Republic