

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Pavel Andrlé is an international trade and finance consultant and lecturer. He has worked for a number of leading local and international banks in various positions (e.g. as trade finance specialist, head of trade finance, trade finance risk manager, in-house trainer).

He is a frequent lecturer in documentary credits, guarantees and trade finance for leading organizations and institutions, including leading international development banks, bank associations, chambers of commerce, universities and other educational organizations, governmental entities involved in export promotion, customs authorities, as well as commercial banks, exporters and importers, traders and corporations acting in international transport, logistics and cargo insurance. He is also a regular facilitator in seminars organized by ICC national committees world-wide. As an international trainer and consultant, Pavel has delivered seminars and/or consultancy services in more than 40 countries, including Albania, Bulgaria, Romania, Poland, Serbia, Slovakia, United Kingdom, Ireland, Denmark, Portugal, Lithuania, Latvia, Malta, Georgia, Turkey, Russia, Uzbekistan, Azerbaijan, Mongolia, Bangladesh, Cambodia, Vietnam, India, Sri Lanka, Nepal, China, Philippines, Singapore, UAE, Sierra Leone, Zambia, Uganda, South Africa, Ghana, Nigeria, Mozambique, Trinidad, Dominica, etc.

Pavel Andrlé is a Secretary to the Banking Commission of ICC Czech Republic, which he regularly represents at the ICC Banking Commission meetings abroad. He chaired the working groups of ICC CR that revised translations of UCP 500, UCP 600, eUCP, ISP98, URDG 758, URF 800 and other Banking Commission documents into Czech language. He has been deeply involved in the revision of the last UCP as a member of UCP 600 Consulting Group, which was formed by over forty experts from all over the world. He has also been closely involved in revision of URDG 758. In years 2010-2011 he served as a member of the ICC Banking Commission Group of Experts, which drafted the official ICC Banking Commission Opinions on ICC Rules. He also participated in the work of the Consulting group for ICC Rules on BPO. Nowadays, he is a member of ICC Task Force on Guarantees and a member of the Task Force on Forfeiting.

Pavel worked closely with Mr. Miroslav Subert, a member of the Incoterms 2010 Drafting Group, during the revision of Incoterms and cooperated in the official translation of Incoterms 2010 into the Czech language. He has delivered numerous seminars on the Incoterms 2000 and Incoterms 2010, both in the Czech Republic and abroad. In October 2014, Mr. Andrlé was appointed a Secretary to the Commission on Commercial Law and Practice of ICC Czech Republic.

Pavel is author of the publication Documentary Credits – a Practical Guide published by a leading Czech publisher (in 6 editions as of 2014). He has written a Commentary to UCP500 in the light of ISBP and other ICC Banking Commission documents and Commentary to UCP600 published by ICC CR (all in the Czech language). The first edition of the book: Examination of documents under Documentary Credits was published by ICC CR in October 2012 and was sold in more than 20 countries worldwide!

Pavel has also contributed many articles to leading professional magazines focusing on international trade and finance, such as DCInsight (former magazine of ICC Banking Commission), Documentary Credit World (published by the Institute of International Banking Law and Practice), Global Trade Review (published by Exporta), Trade & Forfeiting Review (published by Wilmington Group plc). Pavel is a lead tutor in the finance of international trade with the Electronic Business School International.

Pavel Andrlé serves as an appointed ICC CR expert to reply to inquiries related to documentary credits and trade and structured finance – development of technical assistance consultancy services of ICC CR to banks, carriers, insurance companies and corporations involved in international trade. It also includes advisory services and in-house technical assistance in banks and companies. Pavel is also a long-term DOCDEX expert of ICC Centre for Expertise with ICC International Arbitration Court, ICC Paris, and also an arbitrator with Vilnius Arbitration Court, Lithuania.

Mr. Pavel Andrlé can be contacted at pa@cmail.cz or andrlé@icc-cr.cz.

More information about the author and also about this publication can be found at the website: www.tradefinanceconsulting.com.